

K-9 Bomb Dog Zoom a decorated war hero with the United States Marines. Served 2 tours in Afghanistan and 1 tour in Iraq. Saved countless Marines lives and discovered thousands and thousands of dollars worth of explosives from the Taliban while on his deployments.

Retired from the Marines at 6 years old and was donated to the Fulton County Sheriffs Office. Responded to many Bomb threats and suspicious packages in Atlanta and surrounding counties during his 4 years with the Sheriffs's office. He was responsible for pre game sweeps for the Braves, Hawks and Falcons as well as other high profile events in Atlanta.

Zoom won several Detection contest and awards while with the Sheriffs's office including the most sought after and prestigious Man Tracker award referred to as Top Dog in 2014. In fact it's the first time in the history of the annual man tracker competition that a Bomb dog won the Detection Trophy.

Zoom turned 10 in September 2016 and retired from duty after over 8 years of faithful and unwavering service. He is at his last handlers home enjoying retirement and laying around on his nice comfy pillow by the fireplace. He finally gets to be a regular dog eating table scraps, treats and going to dog parks all of which he couldn't do before.
